DETAILED ACTION

1. Formal Matters

- A. The Election filed 5/25/06 has been entered into the record.
- B. Claims 1-46 are pending. Applicants elected Group VII, claims 44-46. Since no traversal was provided. The Election is being treated as an Election without traverse. Therefore, claims 1-43 have been withdrawn as being drawn to a non-elected invention. Claims 44-46 are the subject of this Office Action. The Restriction mailed 4/6/06 is deemed proper and is made FINAL.

2. Specification

- A. The specification is objected to since the Description of Figures 3 and 4 does not contain sequence identifiers. When a sequence is presented in a drawing, regardless of the format or the manner of presentation of that sequence in the drawing, the sequence must still be included in the Sequence Listing and a sequence identifier ("SEQ ID NO:X") must be used either in the drawing or in the Brief Description of the Drawings. See MPEP ' 2422.02.
- B. According to 37 CFR 1.821(d) (MPEP § 2422), where the description or claims of a patent application discuss a sequence listing that is set forth in the "Sequence Listing" in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section, reference must be made to the sequence by use of the assigned identifier, in the text of the description or claims, even if the sequence is also embedded in the text of the description or claims of the patent application. Sequences appear on page 25, line 1, of the specification but are not identified by SEQ ID NO as required. Similarly, page 77, lines 11, 12, 24 and 30 as well as pages 78 and 79 also have sequences.

3. Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

- A. Claims 44-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is not supported by a specific, substantial and credible asserted utility or a well-established utility. These claims are directed to methods of identifying compounds which can modulate SEQ ID NO:2. However, the invention encompassed by these claims has no apparent or disclosed patentable utility. This rejection is consistent with the current utility guidelines, published 1/5/01, 66 FR 1092. The instant application has provided a description of an isolated protein. However, the instant application does not disclose a specific and substantial biological role of this protein or its significance. Figures 6 and 7 of the instant invention show receptor binding data for a PGD receptor. However, it is not clear that the receptor used in these studies involved SEQ ID NO:2. If it is made clear on the record that SEQ ID NO:2 (SEQ ID NO:1) is the receptor that was expressed in these cells then the utility rejection will be withdrawn.

Art Unit: 1647

Furthermore, since the proteins of the invention are not supported by a specific and substantial asserted utility or a well established utility, the methods of using the protein also lack utility.

4. Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112, first paragraph - enablement

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

A. Claims 44-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to adequately teach how to use the instant invention. Specifically, since the claimed invention is not supported by a specific, substantial and credible asserted utility or a well established utility for the reasons set forth above, one skilled in the art clearly would not know how to use the claimed invention.

5. Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112, second paragraph

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

A. Claims 44-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential steps, such omission amounting to a gap between the steps. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted steps are: there is no end step which concludes that the test compound is, in fact, an agonist, antagonist, or inverse agonist. For example, claim 44 could be amended to recite "wherein this increase identifies the potential agonist as an agonist." It would be clearer to recite "...identifies this compound..."

Art Unit: 1647

However, there would be a lack of antecedent basis in the claim as currently written unless part (a) was rewritten to say "contacting a test compound with a cell..."

6. Title

A. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

6. Conclusion

A. No claim is allowable.
